

THE CHAMPION CHRONICLE

VOLUME 15

CHAMPION, (Alberta) THURSDAY, April 19, 1934

NUMBER 47

A TWO-HOUR LAUGH

NORTH LETHBRIDGE INTER CHURCH

MINSTRELS

THE BOYS WHO CAN'T FIND WORK

In their Second Annual Minstrel Show

In Champion Community Hall

Friday Nite April 20th

A GOOD SHOW—GOOD SINGING

Sponsored by Champion S.P.O.E.

Two humorous plays—

"The Case Against Casey"

and

"Troubled With Ghosts"

Bateman's Popular Orchestra with the Show

DANCE AFTER SHOW

Popular Prices—15c 25c 35c

Sam Fong Cafe

FRIGIDAIRE ICE CREAM AND FRUIT
CIGARETTES TOBACCO
SOFT DRINKS, ETC.
ROOMS
Best Meals in Town Bread For Sale

OPERATING WITH A BACKGROUND OF GRAIN HANDLING EXPERIENCE DATING BACK TO 1917—A DECADE BEFORE THE DAYS OF CONFEDERATION—DISCUSS YOUR GRAIN HANDLING & MARKETING PROBLEMS WITH OUR AGENT—
M. F. HAMILTON - Agent

Tractor Owners

We carry a full line of

CASOLINE
TRACTOR KEROSENE
TURNER VALLEY NAPHTHA
OILS AND GREASES

AT

Central Service Station

(Wholesale and Retail)

Get our prices before buying.

Champion Lodge
A. F. & A. M.
G. R. A.

Meets second Thursday in each month. Visiting brethren welcome.

HARRY E. SMITH,

G. L. DEPUY,

W. M. Secretary.

Dr. H. NEWTON HEAL
DENTAL SURGEON

In Champion Thursday and Friday.

Lethbridge Minstrels Coming to Champion

Under the auspices of the local Elks arrangements have been made to stage in the Community Hall here on the night of Friday April 20th, The North Lethbridge Minstrels, consisting of boys who can't find work. But have used their talents to entertain you for a good two hours laugh. These boys have put this same show on four times in Lethbridge to packed houses.

Bateman's seven piece orchestra comes along with the show and forms a real musical background for all the acts. The orchestra will also play for a dance after the show.

The Elks are planning seating accommodation for a packed house at the popular prices of 15c, 25c and 35c. So don't forget the date Friday night April 20th.

Dramatic Festival At Vulcan April 23

Drama lovers of Champion will no doubt keenly anticipate the Dramatic Festival announced for presentation in the Vulcan theatre, on Monday evening April 23rd. Three one-act plays will be presented, and as a special attraction the Vulcan Concert Orchestra will provide prelude and interlude music. The three plays selected by various young people groups are: "The Model Wife" by Helen F. Bagg, "Suppressed Desire" by Susan Chapell, and "Wanderlust" by Paul Halvey.

The first under the direction of Miss Mayne Lebeau, has for its scene an artist's studio in New York and is of the comedy type drama. "Suppressed Desire" is under the direction of Mrs. Wayne Ransome and is a short satirical play in two scenes. The third, "Wanderlust" has for its scene a family flat in the Bronx, New York. It is of the drama type and is under the direction of R. D. McKelvey.

Local & General

Found—Khaki coat. Owner call at Chronicle office.

Grape Fruit Special, 5 for 25c at Campbell's.

Palm Olive Soap, 5c cake at Campbell's.

W. C. Fry of Spokane, is a business visitor in this district.

Mrs. Berger was a chain tea hostess on Friday.

H. T. Lamont recently purchased a new Essex from A. Kramer.

New Carrots, Lettuce Radish, Rhubarb, New Cabbage, Green Onions, Asparagus, at Campbell's.

Mrs. R. Maxwell was a chain tea hostess Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jopling and Ruth were Mile visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Ulrich was a chain tea hostess on Thursday of last week.

Miss Marjorie Hopkins, who has been holidaying at the coast, returned to Champion Tuesday.

Mrs. George Dupue, who was recently operated on for appendicitis in the Vulcan hospital, is convalescing at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Obiheller entertained at dinner on Sunday, when their guests included Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Farmer.

R. M. Roberts, who has spent the past few months visiting at the home of his sister in Fort Elgin, Nova Scotia, returned to Calgary this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott of Magrath, formerly of Champion, motored through town Friday, enroute to Okotoks, where they intend visiting Mr. Scott's father, who is ill.

Special Attractions At Old-Time Concert

The Committee of the Ladies' Aid in charge of the Old-Time Concert, planned for Friday, May 4th, in Campbell's Hall, is now in a position to announce certain items which will form part of the programme.

Miss Mavis Moffatt, an ever-popular young soloist, will contribute two selections. Miss Mervyn McDougall will add variety to the entertainment by a dance number. A chorus by the pupils of Blusson School, directed by Miss Ireta Campbell, is an attraction extraordinary. Inspector Orsipo especially commended the teaching of music as carried on in this school.

The High School Orchestra, a group of talented and peppy young people, who are always sure of a welcome from Champion audiences, will be heard again. Mr. J. M. Moffatt is planning to present his male quartette—any one remember their performance as one of the outstanding numbers of last year's Irish programme. Miss Adelaide Williamson, Misses Ruth and Gladys Anderson, who were so well received at the Sunday School Christmas concert, are again preparing a vocal trio. Bob McDougall and Max Caldwell are racking their brains for ideas for an original piano-lyric, which will be of interest to the community at large. They have become quite famous for these performances at the meetings of the High School Literary Society.

Other individual numbers will include piano solos by Misses Ireta Campbell and Margaret Patterson, violin solos by Miss Gladys Anderson, vocal solos by Mrs. McLean, Miss Barbara Wise, and Mr. Campbell—and a number by Mr. Dawson and Mr. Campbell. The nature of which is not yet divulged. It is hoped too, that we shall be able to persuade Miss Densha Walker and her brother Billy, from Vulcan, to contribute to our programme.

Next week details regarding the concert play, "Rats" will be ready for publication.

An enjoyable evening is assured. You will get more than your money's worth. Make it a family night out. Admission 25 and 15c.

Local & General

Hopkins' Old Time orchestra will supply the music for a dance on Friday night April 27th, in Champion community Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hummon entertained at three tables of bridge on Thursday evening. Honors were shared by Mrs. D. D. Farmer and P. Gatenby, Consolation Mrs. Gatenby and Mr. Folk, Carmangay.

Mrs. A. Miller, who spent a few weeks visiting at the coast, returned to Champion last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hummon and Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Hummon motored to Claresholm Sunday to visit Derral Hummon, who is farming at that point.

Recent word from Mrs. A. Lyon, who is a patient in the Galt hospital, states that she is now able to rest without an opiate and is making fair progress toward recovery.

Sweet Pea Seeds, Ruffled Giants, the finest in the world, all named varieties, 10c package at Campbell's.

Give the Old Cow a break, surprise her next winter with some Corn, Sugar Beets, Mangels, etc. Just 5 acres of that wheat land will do the trick. Everything in seeds at Campbell's.

Extensive work has been in progress on the golf course during the week. The greens have been enlarged and reseeded. Bankers and hazards are also being placed on the fairways. Golf enthusiasts are looking forward to a busy season.

T. Burland has been in charge of work in connection with the tennis courts. It is expected that the courts will be ready for play this week.

Champion Theatre

Wednesday, April 25th

"SMILIN' THROUGH"

WITH

NORMA SHEARER

FREDRIC MARCH AND LESLIE HOWARD

Here is one of the finest pictures we have ever shown and its the kind of a show we are proud to run.

NOTE--Show now starts at 8.30

Wed. April 25th

Long Louie Cafe

The Best Place in Town to Eat

With the approach of the busy season

we are prepared to cater to farmers and others with quick courteous service

--- We Appreciate Your Patronage ---

Cigars, Cigarettes, Tobaccos, Soft Drinks, All Kinds of Fruit in Season, Ice Cream the Year Round, etc.

EVERY ARGUMENT

based on careful thought, experience and reason suggests that Alberta grain growers should give support to a co-operative grower-controlled Alberta grain handling organization.

Many farmers have quantities of grain which they plan to dispose of either before or after seeding.

Deliver it to

Alberta Pool Elevators

A DOLLAR'S WORTH

Clip this coupon and mail it with $4 for a six weeks' trial subscription to

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

Published by THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR SOCIETY

Boston, Massachusetts, U. S. A.

It is the only daily paper in the world that publishes the most complete, most accurate, most impartial, most reliable, most up-to-date news from home and abroad. It is the only paper that publishes the most complete, most accurate, most impartial, most reliable, most up-to-date news from home and abroad.

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR, Back Bay Station, Boston, Mass.

Please send me a six weeks' trial subscription. I enclose one dollar ($1.00).

(Name, please print)

(Address)

(Phone)

(Postage)

Deko Camulini, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Camulini of Taber, met with a serious accident on Thursday, when a cow kicked him in the stomach. The child was immediately taken to the Galt hospital where he was x-rayed and operated upon. He is now making fair progress towards recovery. Mr. and Mrs. E. Camulini and family spent the week end in Lethbridge with the child.

The fish aquarium on display in the window of the meat market has caused considerable comment. The aquarium, which is quite large and lined with mirrors, is connected with the frigidaire, thus keeping the water in motion. Water plants and a variety of gold fish add to the attractiveness of the aquarium.

Hopkins' Old Time Orchestra will be here again Friday, April 27th. Be sure and come.

OCCASIONAL WIFE

By EDNA ROSE WEBSTER
Author of "Jorita," "Lipstick Girl," etc.

SYNOPSIS

Camilla Hoyt and Peter Anson, young and in love, marry secretly, deciding to live their own lives apart until Peter is able to provide for her. Peter is a young, struggling sculptor trying to win a competition for a scholarship abroad and Camilla is the adopted daughter of a wealthy family. She is not to inherit money when she comes of age and so is studying commercial art in the hope of landing an agency job. Others in the story are Avia Werth, another wealthy girl who is trying to win Peter, Sylvia Todd, Peter's model, and Gus Matson, his former roommate with whom he has quarrelled. At a party at an exclusive club Peter entertains Camilla's guests with impersonations. When the rest of the members of the party go to the restaurant to continue the party, Peter and Camilla slip off to the balcony by themselves and they stay on the sand. When they awake it is early morning and Avia and another boy are standing near them. This makes it necessary for Camilla to assume before the party that she and Peter are married. Downman and Wesker, an advertising agency, where Camilla has submitted some of her work, send for her and offer her a salary of $500 a week. They also offer her a prospect of having it doubled. This tells Peter that Camilla has secured employment. Mrs. Hoyt is also informed that Camilla has obtained work in a gallery to leave the Hoyt household. Avia leaves her a stunner on the second floor as Peter, and invites him to lunch there. Peter is very impressed with his visit. Camilla urges Peter to accept some of the money and help him along, but Peter refuses and they quarrel.

(Now Go On With The Story)

CHAPTER XXXIX.

Peter dismissed Avia's suggestion that she "invest money in his future" with, "I couldn't do that. It's awfully sporting of you to offer and I appreciate your confidence in me, but it wouldn't be fair to borrow money from you just because you are a good friend."

"You would consider a loan from a stranger, if he would take the risk?" "I might. I know that I could pay it back sometime, whether I make it at sculpturing or not. I certainly don't expect to be broke for always."

"Then let me back you for a trial. I'd love to be interested in your progress and see you win out." She did not plead or attempt to influence him with a personal appeal. Only her words were persuasive.

After a short silence, he asked abruptly, "Why are you interested in me?"

Her head was thrown back against a cushion and she looked at him from beneath lowered eyelids. Her lips curved slightly with amusement. "Because I like you," Avia admitted. "And, as I said, because I believe in your ability, and have money to invest in a good thing when I see it. Need any more reasons?"

"That all of them?" he asked. "All I can think of at this moment." She laughed and tossed a cushion at his head. "You're a funny old thing. Anyway, it's all settled. How much?" She got up and went to her desk, took out a pen and check book.

On, don't give it to me, now. I want it done up regular, with legal papers, witnesses and all the rest. You haven't named the interest, even. How do I know you won't change more than the legal rate?"

"It's six per cent. fair enough?" "Okay. Compounded every three months, payable—when?"

"When you have it to spare. So long as you pay the interest, it makes no difference to me how long you have it. It will be a relief to have that much more invested." Her words were wise, businesslike. "Besides, as I told you the other day, I want you to do some work for me when you get time. I'm really an anxious about that, and I'm sure that mother can use some new garden pieces, also."

EDWARDSBURG

EDWARDSBURG
CORN SYRUP
A pure, wholesome, and economical taste Syrup. Children love its delicious flavor.

THE CANADA STARCH CO. LIMITED, MONTREAL

OGDEN'S "Alls well that Smokes Well"

THE PRESIDENT WANTS TO SEE YOU IN HIS OFFICE—AT ONCE!

GOSH! WHAT DOES THE OLD MAN WANT WITH ME? WHAT HAVE I DONE?

YOU BETTER HOLD UP YOUR TAIL AND FIND OUT!

THIS MORNING YOU LET ME HAVE A PIPE OF TOBACCO JUST BECAUSE I WAS IT?

O! LA! THAT WAS MY FAVORITE OGDEN'S!

A BEAUTIFUL BLEND—AND THE BEST OF OGDEN'S FOR ME, TOO!

YES! IT'S MY CHANCE!

"Why should I do them? There are so many who are better known than I."

"You are impossible, Peter Anson. Won't you even grant us the honor of having some of the first pieces done by the future famous Peter Anson? Someone has to start you, surely. And when our friends see what you have done for us, their orders will just naturally follow. Our client always leads to another, for a clever workman."

"You are most encouraging," he admitted. And in another tone, "I do appreciate your interest, Avia, but you can understand that I can't impose upon you."

"Anything which I might do for you is no sacrifice for me, you know that. And this loan is only an advance payment on my future account. It gives me no inconvenience and helps you a little for the present."

"A little! It means everything to me!" he declared. Relief and hope and gratitude were in his voice.

"I hope it will bring everything to you," Avia echoed gently. She began to write the check in her large angular scarf.

"Wait a minute," Peter interrupted her. "If you won't wait any longer for this transaction, I'll make out some sort of temporary legal form for a substitute. Or have you some promissory note blanks?"

"You must think I write checks regularly for loans," she laughed. "Of course, I haven't. But why be silly about all that? I'll have your signature on my canceled check. That's enough for me."

"How much I appreciate your confidence in me, but supposing I died suddenly—"

She smiled. "In that case, I just couldn't collect, I guess."

"That's right," with sudden consternation. "Well, you see? I'm not even a good risk."

"Especially thin," he promised. "If you are more about every minute. If you try hard enough, I suppose you could think of a hundred reasons why I shouldn't let you have the money. But why not wait until we have had a date for a sporting chance, and you win out? If you don't stop this worrying over trifles and burning your work for the sake of a little expense, you will get nowhere. As for seeing Peter, it will be as unattractive for you as the money."

Finally, Peter returned to his room with a check for one thousand dollars and a mingled sentiment of victory and relief and satisfaction. He had insisted upon signing a temporary legal form of his own writing, on which were specific terms and figures.

His gratitude was pathetically genuine when he thanked her. "This is awfully decent of you, Avia. I'll never forget it, either."

"Not even when you have become famous?" she asked playfully.

"Especially thin," he promised. "This is going to make a lot of difference in my work."

"Of course it will. That is why I wanted you to have it. Forget your troubles now, and finish the new design on time for the exhibit. Then we can celebrate."

"With a big party right here." She longed to suggest a more private celebration, but dared not. She had been too successful thus far in her plans to grow reckless now.

She closed the door after him and leaned against it, her head thrown back, dreamily. With Peter in Paris—the Louvre, the Place de la Concorde, the Jardin des Tuileries, the Luxembourg—the paradise of pleasure seekers, the luxury of art and culture—what a place for romance and noble interest, given the right conditions. And surely, she would have them right at her fingertips.

Poor, dear, guileless Peter, who believed he was so wary and shrewd. How like a man to be so easily deceived by deception and so suspicious of sincerity. He would accept money from the woman who was determined to win him at any cost, and obstinately refused to allow his wife to help him even a little. Which was just naturally follow. Our client always leads to another, for a clever workman."

"You are most encouraging," he admitted. And in another tone, "I do appreciate your interest, Avia, but you can understand that I can't impose upon you."

"Anything which I might do for you is no sacrifice for me, you know that. And this loan is only an advance payment on my future account. It gives me no inconvenience and helps you a little for the present."

"A little! It means everything to me!" he declared. Relief and hope and gratitude were in his voice.

"I hope it will bring everything to you," Avia echoed gently. She began to write the check in her large angular scarf.

"Wait a minute," Peter interrupted her. "If you won't wait any longer for this transaction, I'll make out some sort of temporary legal form for a substitute. Or have you some promissory note blanks?"

"You must think I write checks regularly for loans," she laughed. "Of course, I haven't. But why be silly about all that? I'll have your signature on my canceled check. That's enough for me."

"How much I appreciate your confidence in me, but supposing I died suddenly—"

She smiled. "In that case, I just couldn't collect, I guess."

"That's right," with sudden consternation. "Well, you see? I'm not even a good risk."

"Especially thin," he promised. "If you are more about every minute. If you try hard enough, I suppose you could think of a hundred reasons why I shouldn't let you have the money. But why not wait until we have had a date for a sporting chance, and you win out? If you don't stop this worrying over trifles and burning your work for the sake of a little expense, you will get nowhere. As for seeing Peter, it will be as unattractive for you as the money."

Finally, Peter returned to his room with a check for one thousand dollars and a mingled sentiment of victory and relief and satisfaction. He had insisted upon signing a temporary legal form of his own writing, on which were specific terms and figures.

His gratitude was pathetically genuine when he thanked her. "This is awfully decent of you, Avia. I'll never forget it, either."

"Not even when you have become famous?" she asked playfully.

"Especially thin," he promised. "This is going to make a lot of difference in my work."

"Of course it will. That is why I wanted you to have it. Forget your troubles now, and finish the new design on time for the exhibit. Then we can celebrate."

"With a big party right here." She longed to suggest a more private celebration, but dared not. She had been too successful thus far in her plans to grow reckless now.

She closed the door after him and leaned against it, her head thrown back, dreamily. With Peter in Paris—the Louvre, the Place de la Concorde, the Jardin des Tuileries, the

Hans Christian Andersen

Son Of Poor Shoemaker Became A Writer With World-Wide Fame

Denmark recently celebrated the birthday of a poor shoemaker's son who lived to become one of the nation's most famous literary figures. This was Hans Christian Andersen, whose fairy tales are known among children and adults in almost all civilized countries.

Andersen, backward and considered stupid in his youth, was born at Odense in Funen province, April 2, 1806. His parents had no other child the entire family lived in one room.

Andersen always scored his biggest success with fantasy, but had ambitions to write romance and did, in fact, achieve some notice as a novelist and a poet.

His fairy tales earned him fame all over Europe. He was accorded a great welcome when he went to England in 1847. When he left Charles Dickens had him farewell at Rangoon pier.

In 1872 Andersen fell out of bed and was severely hurt. He was never well from that time on, and in 1875 he died at his home near Copenhagen.

Bought in Choppinging, England, three years ago, a pigeon has just returned to its old cot.

Paper Made From House Flies

House Pest Now Used For Manufacture Of Super-Fine Paper

That pest, the common house fly, has been turned to good use—the manufacture of paper.

The Paper Foundation, planning its exhibit for the 1934 world's fair at Chicago, announced it would display for the first time a paper which claims the wings and legs of flies as one of its principal ingredients.

William J. Mickala, president of the foundation, said it takes about 10,000 flies for the manufacture of every pound of the new paper.

"We have found," he said, "that the wings and legs of flies, if mixed with the pulp of super-fine paper, give the finished product a peculiar and handsome watermark pattern that it is impossible to duplicate in any other way."

"We will probably have to look to Europe for our flies, for health authorities and others have reduced them to comparatively few in the United States," Mickala added. "We are now negotiating with one man in Europe, whose name I cannot reveal, who will be able to supply house flies to us in carload lots."

His gratitude was pathetically genuine when he thanked her. "This is awfully decent of you, Avia. I'll never forget it, either."

"Not even when you have become famous?" she asked playfully.

"Especially thin," he promised. "This is going to make a lot of difference in my work."

"Of course it will. That is why I wanted you to have it. Forget your troubles now, and finish the new design on time for the exhibit. Then we can celebrate."

"With a big party right here." She longed to suggest a more private celebration, but dared not. She had been too successful thus far in her plans to grow reckless now.

She closed the door after him and leaned against it, her head thrown back, dreamily. With Peter in Paris—the Louvre, the Place de la Concorde, the Jardin des Tuileries, the

His gratitude was pathetically genuine when he thanked her. "This is awfully decent of you, Avia. I'll never forget it, either."

"Not even when you have become famous?" she asked playfully.

"Especially thin," he promised. "This is going to make a lot of difference in my work."

"Of course it will. That is why I wanted you to have it. Forget your troubles now, and finish the new design on time for the exhibit. Then we can celebrate."

"With a big party right here." She longed to suggest a more private celebration, but dared not. She had been too successful thus far in her plans to grow reckless now.

She closed the door after him and leaned against it, her head thrown back, dreamily. With Peter in Paris—the Louvre, the Place de la Concorde, the Jardin des Tuileries, the

His gratitude was pathetically genuine when he thanked her. "This is awfully decent of you, Avia. I'll never forget it, either."

"Not even when you have become famous?" she asked playfully.

"Especially thin," he promised. "This is going to make a lot of difference in my work."

NIGHT COUGHS

Quickly Checked and a Restful Night Assured

Just rub on VICKS VapoRin

RELIEVES COLDS WITHOUT "DOSING"

WHEN YOU FEEL GROGGY

take a bracing, sparkling glass of

ANDREWS LIVER SALT

TO PICK YOU UP

Enhanced Value Of Few Nova Scotia 1832 Ha'pennies

Everybody around Halifax is closely scanning all old coins. Recently a letter was received at the office of the Halifax board of trade requesting information about the value of a Nova Scotia ha'penny of 1832.

The letter was referred to E. J. Vickers and he said that if the coin was actually dated 1832 it would be worth up to $10.00. The reason for this high value for a mere half-penny is the fact that when the coins were being run off the plate some of them were printed with the numbers 8 and 3 inverted. This mistake was discovered and corrected, but not before a number of coins had been run off and circulated.

Salvaging Sunk Metal

Equipped with diving apparatus which it is claimed, will allow salvaging work to be carried on at a depth of 1,000 feet below the surface of the sea, the Italian steamer Biarco has gone to Tunis, North Africa, to undertake the recovery of more than $3,000,000 worth of metal from a sunken British steamer. The treasure was lost during the war when the Glenartney sank in 700 feet of water.

Different Kind Of Coppers

Having news of some small change, the minister of the house stepped to the top of the back stairs. "Beside," she said to the maid below, "have you any coppers down there?"

"Yes—two," faltered the maid. "but they're my cousin's, please ma'am."

Membership Growing

Membership in the Manitoba boys and girls poultry clubs in 1933 was in advance of the 200 recorded in 1933, in the opinion of J. C. Scholes, who is in charge of the provincial poultry service. He estimates that 15,000 day-old chicks will go out to 300 boys and girls this year.

Individual microphones for each person sharing in a business conference have been invented to record his words on a steel wire.

NEW ORGAN FROM

Reid, Simpson Co. Limited
The Y. Kaler Co. Limited
Egberts Drug Store
Mickey's Gift Store
C. G. Winchey
Bathurst Drug Store
New Melbourn

DEALERS WANTED
CHANTLER & CHANTLER, LTD.
Canadian Distributors,
40 Wellington St. W.,
TORONTO, CANADA

W. N. O. 2042

by Lou Skuce

Little Helps For This Week

"He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake." Psalm 23:2-3.

He leads me where the waters glide.
The waters still and still.
And hereafter I will gently guide.
My wandering heart and will.

—J. Keeble

Out of obedience and devotion arises an habitual faith which makes him, through unreason, a part of our life. He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

His voice He will guide us in a sure path, though it be a rough one, though dangers hang upon it, yet he will be with us. He will bring us home at last. Through much trial it may be, in weariness and much fear and fainting of heart, in much sadness and loneliness, in griefs that the world never knows, and under burdens the nearest never suspect. Yet he will sustain for all his people.

LIGHTEN THE BURDEN ON YOUR EYES

Is every room in your home well lighted?

Can you see to read or sew comfortably in every chair in your living room without annoyance from the glare of unshaded wall brackets or ceiling lights?

Are the lights in your living room placed so that every member of the household can read comfortably at the same time?

Is it possible to sit at your desk or secretary and not have your hand shadow the lines you are writing?

Can the children do their homework without unnecessary strain on their eyes?

When you sit at the dining table, is the light on the table in your eyes?

Can you work at any working surface in your kitchen without being in your own light?

Can you see both sides of your face at the same time in the mirror of your dresser?

Your Electrical Contractor will help you plan adequate lighting for your home.

BETTER LIGHT MEANS BETTER SIGHT

Calgary Power Company Limited

D. BUEHLER Local Manager VULCAN

CHAMPION GROCETERIA

Miracle Whip Salad Dressing, 8 1-2 oz. jar 20c
Vito Spread Cheese, 1-2 lb. pkg. 15c
Fresh Fig Bar Cookies, per lb. 20c
I. B. C. Select Sodas, per pkg. 45c
Squirrel Brand Peanut Butter, 4 lb. tins. 65c
Cowan's Perfection Cocoa, 1 lb. tins. 25c
Cowan's Perfection Cocoa, 1-2 lb. tins. 15c
Oxydol, small size, 3 for. 25c
Palm Olive Soap, now 5 for. 25c

Lettuce, Tomatoes, Rhubarb, Etc.

E. LATIFF

Phone 14

IN THE ESTATE OF HERBERT COOPER, late of Calgary, in the Province of Alberta, Reitor and Insurance Agent, deceased.

NOTICE

NOTICE is hereby given that all persons having claims upon the estate of the above named Herbert Cooper who died on the 7th day of February, A.D. 1934, are required to file with SCOTT AND MILVAIN, Barristers, 511 Herald Building, Calgary, by the 7th day of June A.D. 1934, a full statement duly verified of their claims and of any securities held by them, and that after that date the Executor will distribute the assets of the deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which notice has been so filed or which have been brought to my knowledge.

Dated at Calgary, this 13th day of April, A.D. 1934.

SCOTT AND MILVAIN Solicitors for Elizabeth Cooper, Executrix.

NOTICE

Will the person who took rear spring and 2 wheels off Ford car from Newcome farm please return at once and save further trouble.

Attention! O.O.R.P.

The next regular meeting of the O.O.R.P. will be held in the Community Hall on Tuesday evening, May 1st.

A good attendance would be appreciated.

MARGARET McRAE, Secretary.

Hello, Champion

Were Coming in High on

FRIDAY
APRIL 20th

Under Auspices of Your B.P.O.E. Lodge

We'll bring a two-hour laugh

The
North Lethbridge
Inter-Church
Minstrels

THE BOYS WHO CANNOT FIND WORK, AND BATHMAN'S POPULAR ORCHESTRA

Curtain at 8.30

ROEBUCK TRANSFER

Phone 814 Champion

We Haul Coal, Wheat and Livestock
Snappy Service and Reasonable Rates

Phone us your Orders

The Compression Tester

Tells in a few minutes whether it is your rings or valves. Come in and let us test your motor. Don't forget, we are equipped to repair your Magneto.

W. I. HARRIS

Girls and Ladies' Sport Oxfords, Tan and Brown Combinations, very pliable, all sizes, pair $3.35

Ladies Angel Silk Waists

White Puffed Sleeves, Peter Pan Collar, each. 2.25

Ladies Cloth Skirts

In all new colors, smart smart styles, each. 2.98

Ladies White Tennis Shoes

Sizes 3 to 7, per pair. 1.00

Boys Brown Tennis Shoes

Kaufman's quality, sizes 1 to 5, per pair. 1.00

Men's No Button B. V. D.

Made from nice fine cotton, Sizes 36 to 46, per suit. 89c

Men's Every Day Socks

Medium heavy quality, dark Grey All sizes, per pair. 25c

Independent Biscuits, large Wood Box, each 37c

Cocoanuts, large size, each 15c

Sugar House Molasses, 5 lb. tins. 49c

Red Rose Coffee, 5 lb. tins. 2.10

Santos Coffee, fresh ground 3 lbs. for. 85c

Irish Cobbler Potatoes Suitable for seed, sack 1.25

Onion Sets, 3 lbs. for. 53c

Rowntree's Cocoa, 6 lb. cartons 79c

Prunes, 50's and 60's, 2 lbs. 27c

Dill Pickles, Happy Vale brand, Libby's large tins, each 25c

Tobacco, 1-2 lb. tins, Leister Square, each. 50c

Carrots, fresh stock, 5 lbs. for 19c

Parsnips, 4 lbs. for. 23c

McCullough Bros.

Notice to Farmers

I am now equipped to sharpen any make of Wheatland Flows, Prices reasonable. See B. Hummel.

Cultivator shovels pointed to look like new.

Hand made chisels and punches for sale.

Sell your crop the "NATIONAL WAY"

123 Country Elevators in the West Terminal Connections at Fort William and Vancouver

NATIONAL ELEVATOR COMPANY, LTD. WINNIPEG - CALGARY - EDMONTON - FORT ARTHUR

Therriault Mine

7 Miles East of Champion RE-OPENS

Prices $2.50 per ton

The best Stove Coal in the district. Also the Cleanest.

Geo. Rhodes, Operator Phone 807

Local & General

Lost—Black and white Parker fountain pen. Finder please return to Max Caldwell.

K. R. McLean, R.O., of McLean & Anderson, Sight Specialist of 224-8th Ave West, Calgary, will make his monthly visit to Champion, Friday April 27th, at the Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Crane returned to their farm last week after spending the winter at their home in Calgary.

A very important part of the W. I. programme was omitted from last week's issue. The contest—Mrs. Dawson had twenty little boxes of stuff out of the pantry to identify with out tasting. Mrs. Bastin and Mrs. Farmer recognized the same number. Mrs. Farmer won the draw. Mrs. Alcock won the consolation.

Champion Community Hall

DANCE !

Friday April 27th

FEATURING

HOPKINS' OLD TIME ORCHESTRA

IN

Dances OLD and NEW

Admission 50c each

High School 25c